Introduction to Budgeting 1993

This manual aims to present a broad coverage of urban finance and describe the techniques of urban financial analysis. The manual is designed to provide only the core material for courses on urban financial management and should be supplemented with material relating to the specific conditions of the countries of the participants. This manual is divided into four chapters. Chapter one provides an overview of key issues in urban finance and introduces a framework for urban financial analysis. Chapter two focuses on revenues and addresses the questions of how and from where government authorities can mobilize the resources required to finance the provision of urban services and the development and maintenance of urban infrastructure. Chapter three examines expenditure analysis and addresses the question of how to spend more wisely. Chapter four discusses private participation in the delivery of urban services, forms of private sector involvement, and the role of nongovernment organizations and community groups. The report closes with a case study on private participation in public services and functions solid waste disposal in Malaysia.

The library budget, a topic of primary importance to the reference librarian, is thoroughly examined in this book. First published in 1988, experts offer insightful suggestions for reference librarians to understand and take responsibility for budget issues directly and indirectly. They address the ability to explain the budget, which actually entails explaining the collection, the services, and the process in place for managing the fiscal resources. A necessary skill for any reference librarian faced with looming budget cuts, providing quality services on a limited budget is also explored. The contributors provide helpful essays on convincing the parent agency to provide adequate support, setting goals and priorities, generating revenue, and more.
