A collection of documents supplementing the companion series known as colonial records which contain the minutes of the provincial council of the council of safety and of the supreme executive council of Pennsylvania appendix 42 in the report of the minister of agriculture for 1874 consists of a report of proceedings connected with Canadian archives in Europe by H. A. J. B. Verreau A century of X rays and radioactivity in medicine with emphasis on photographic records of the early years celebrates three great discoveries: X rays 1895, radioactivity 1896, and radium 1898, and recalls the pioneering achievements that founded the new science of radiology and changed the face of medicine forever over 700 historical illustrations with full and informative captions are supported by short introductory essays to illuminate the fascinating radiological past in an easy-to-read style. The focus of this book is on the historically more interesting early years of discovery, invention, diagnosis, therapy, dosimetry, risk, and protection interspersed with a variety of radiological anecdotes. The photographic record is complemented by archival accounts of the pioneer scientists and physicians and their early patients in the chapters on diagnostic techniques radiotherapy and nuclear medicine. The author contrasts old methods with newer technologies he also includes two fascinating chapters on museum and industrial applications of radiography. The book is comprehensively indexed for easy retrieval of the wide variety of people, techniques, apparatus, and examples featured throughout this radiological journey. An updated repackaged edition of the bestselling divination tool and party favorite ask a yes or no question open the book find your answer with more than a million copies in print should you ask your boss for a raise or sell your Google stock tell your best friend her boyfriend's cheating the answer to these questions and hundreds of others is in this fun and weirdly wise little book that's impossible to put down it's simple to use just hold it closed in your hands and concentrate on your question for a few seconds while visualizing or speaking your question place one palm down on the book's front and stroke the edge of the pages back to front when you sense the time is right open to the page your fingers landed on and there is your answer fun satisfying and a lot less time consuming than asking everyone you know for advice over 1 million copies in print it is impossible to reproduce the state of mind of the men who waged war in 1917 and 1918 Edward Coffman wrote in the war to end all wars in doughboys on the great war the voices of thousands of servicemen say otherwise. The majority of soldiers from the American Expeditionary Forces returned from Europe in 1919 where many were simply asked for basic data. Veterans from four states—Utah, Minnesota, Connecticut, and Virginia—were given questionnaires soliciting additional information and remarks drawing on these questionnaires completed while memories were still fresh. This book presents a chorus of soldiers voices speaking directly of the expectations, motivations, and experiences as infantrymen on the Western Front in World War I what was it like to kill or maim German soldiers to see friends killed or maimed by the enemy to return home after experiencing such violence again and again.
soldiers wrestle with questions like these putting into words what only they can tell they also reflect on why they volunteered why they fought what their training was and how ill prepared they were for what they found overseas they describe how they interacted with the civilian populations in England and France how they saw the rewards and frustrations of occupation duty when they desperately wanted to go home and perhaps most significantly what it all added up to in the end together their responses create a vivid and nuanced group portrait of the soldiers who fought with the American Expeditionary Forces on the battlefields of AISNE MARNE ARGONNE FOREST BELLEAU WOOD CHATEAU THIERRY MARNE METZ MEUSE ARGONNE ST MIHIEL SEDAN AND VERDUN during the First World War the picture that emerges is often at odds with the popular notion of the disillusioned doughboy though hardened and harrowed by combat the veteran heard here is for the most part proud of his service undertaken for duty honor and country in short a hundred years later the doughboy once more speaks in his own true voice the world is changing it opens like a flower to light new ways of learning and knowledge the legacy of one thought is part of the annals of the dogmatic spirits the same is true in education all uncharted territory lies before us cognition is not everything now it is a voice that resonates everywhere it will accompany states affecting soul feelings and emotions to understand the teacher as a human being exercising a profession that takes knowledge and love this works as the teacher changes as a person with all its potential and vicissitudes the aim is to change the teacher to good treatment from itself with the help of brief strategic therapy and mindfulness a dialogue between east and west strategic problem solving techniques and meditation techniques talking the same language the language of human rights harmony and cordiality that is necessary to put a stop to such violence and abuse in the relationship swarming pedagogical we believe in the possibility of good treatment a sensitive teacher who listens encourages and respects it does not hurt or mistreat those who loves what he does and puts the human face of education in their performance here the reader will find an original method for teaching change going to manage breathing reflection and action to achieve full attention and deep awareness what has contemporary China inherited from its revolutionary past how do the realities and memories aesthetics and practices of the Mao era still reverberate in the post-mao cultural landscape the essays in this volume propose red legacies as a new critical framework from which to examine the profusion of cultural productions and afterlives of the communist revolution in order to understand China's continuities and transformations from socialism to postsocialism organized into five parts red foundations red icons red classics red bodies and red shadows the book's interdisciplinary contributions focus on visual and performing arts literature and film language and thought architecture museums and memorials mediating at once unfulfilled ideals and unmourned ghosts across generations red cultural legacies suggest both inheritance and debt and can be mobilized to support as well as to critique the status quo uncut and uncensored the infamous Pre-Code Crime does not pay comics are finally collected into a series of archival hardcovers with brutal realistic tales focusing on vile criminals Crime does not pay was one of the most popular comics of the 1940s the series was a favorite target of Dr Fredric Wertham and other censors and is partially
