This book examines nearly 30 years of research to identify how teachers can incorporate writing instruction that helps students master the course content and improve their overall achievement building on the recommendations of the National Commission on Writing. Authors Vicki Urquhart and Monette McIver introduce four critical issues teachers should address when they include writing in their content courses: creating a positive environment for feedback and guidance, students need at various stages including prewriting, drafting, revising, and editing, monitoring and assessing how much students are learning through their writing, choosing computer programs that best enhance the writing process, strengthening their knowledge of course content and their own writing skills. The 7th International Conference of the Gruppo di Studi sulla Comunicazione Parlata dedicated to the Memory of Claire Blanche Benveniste chose as its main theme, speech corpora. The wide international origin of the 235 authors from 21 countries and 95 institutions led to papers on many different languages. The 89 papers of this volume reflect the themes of the conference: spoken corpora compilation and annotation with the technological connected fields: the relation between prosody and pragmatics, speech pathologies, and different papers on phonetics, speech, and linguistic analysis. Pragmatics and sociolinguistics. Many papers are also dedicated to speech and second language studies. The online publication with FUP allows direct access to sound and video linked to papers when downloaded.
