sampath chawla was born in a time of drought that ended with a vengeance the night of his birth all signs being auspicious the villagers triumphantly assured sampath’s proud parents that their son was destined for greatness twenty years of failure later that unfortunately does not appear to be the case a sullen government worker sampath is inspired only when in search of a quiet place to take his nap but the world is round his grandmother says wait and see even if it appears he is going downhill he will come up the other side yes on top of the world he is just taking a longer route but the world is round his grandmother says wait and see even if it appears he is going downhill he will come up the other side yes on top of the world he is just taking a longer route no one believes her until one day sampath climbs into a guava tree and becomes unintentionally famous as a holy man setting off a series of events that spin increasingly out of control a delightfully sweet comic novel that ends in a raucous bang hullabaloo in the guava orchard is as surprising and entertaining as it is beautifully wrought

Globalization in the Novels of Kiran Desai: A Study 2022-09-07 this book is the first of its kind to examine the theories of nation and national identity in both the west according to the theories of benedict anderson and salman rushdie and in the east in the light of the works of jawaharlal nehru as they apply to the novels of arundhati roy and kiran desai the second part of the twentieth century witnessed a new interface between fiction and history called new history it brought into its purview the hitherto marginalized sections of society like slaves peasants workers women and children whereas the subalterns in the inheritance of loss are disempowered by the brunt of globalization and neo colonialism the subalterns in the god of small things face the ire of the deep seated divisions based on caste and gender bias in a postcolonial society in addition this book also deals with contemporary social issues like individual identity in a multicultural world where cultures and nature converge into myriad ways of living it will be of immense benefit to ma and mphil students all over india as well as to phd scholars and teachers of english literature both in india and abroad

A Compendium of Indian Writing in English 2021-12-31 taking up the roles that salman rushdie himself has assumed as a cultural broker gatekeeper and mediator in various spheres of public production ana cristina mendes situates his work in terms of the contemporary production circulation and consumption of postcolonial texts within the workings of the cultural industries mendes pays particular attention to rushdie as a public performer across various creative platforms not only as a novelist and short story writer but also as a public intellectual reviewer and film critic mendes argues that how a postcolonial author becomes personally and professionally enmeshed in the dealings of the cultural industries is of particular relevance at a time when the market is strictly regulated by a few multinational corporations she contends that marginality should not be construed exclusively as a basis for understanding rushdie s work since a critical grounding in marginality will predictably involve a reproduction of the traditional postcolonial binaries of oppressor oppressed and colonizer colonized that the writer subverts rather she seeks to expand existing interpretations of rushdie s work itineraries and frameworks in order to take into account the actual conditions of postcolonial cultural production and circulation within a marketplace that is global in both orientation and effects various levels from word to translation unit when rendering a literary legal economic or hybrid text genre into a second language as well as on some of the methodological issues raised by this process the papers attempt to give answers to questions including why or what cultural elements are important when mediating between languages or cultures what equivalence can be found for certain cultural lexical items for certain collocations or for business metaphors in the target language the book also investigates the translation of 21st century newspeak as well as cases of lexical gaps reveals similarities and differences love violence and identity are multifaceted concepts of life in general and literature in particular much has already been written on the themes of love violence and identity in english literature till date however these emotions are still inexplicable to one and all love violence and identity have multiple connotations as words and these emotions keep multifarious nuances as expressions on the other hand when we try to understand them in comparison the implications turn out to be multidimensional this book presents a comparative study of the themes of love violence and identity in such a unique manner that it helps to comprehend the hidden meanings of these cumbersome concepts and at the same time it opens up certain remarkably new avenues of learning in the field of comparative literature studies
