doctoral dissertations in political economy in progress in American universities and colleges and the handbook of the American Economic Association graduate programs in art history is an indispensable comprehensive guide to schools that offer a master's doctoral or related degree in art studies including history of art and architecture, visual studies, museum and curatorial studies, arts administration and library science. Compiled by the College Art Association, this easy-to-use directory includes over 260 schools and English language academic programs in the United States, Canada, Great Britain, and elsewhere. Worldwide listings provide descriptions of special courses, numbers, names, and specializations of faculty, facilities such as libraries and labs, student opportunities for research and work information, on financial aid, fellowships, and assistantships. Application requirements and details on housing, health insurance, and other practical matters. An index lists schools alphabetically and by state and country for quick reference. An introductory essay provides a detailed description of the elements of a program entry, including explanations of the various kinds of programs and degrees offered, placing the search and selection process in context. This is the third edition of this directory, published by CAA. This bibliography, which covers literature from 1947 through 1984, contains entries for 2,154 documents. Most documents are journal articles but they also include research reports, rehabilitation facility in house materials, speeches, unpublished papers, and hardcover books. The bibliography serves as a reference to the literature in vocational evaluation and adjustment services and as a catalog. All of the literature listed here is available on a loan basis from the Information Retrieval System of the Materials Development Center, School of Education and Human Services, University of Wisconsin Stout. Most of the literature listed is directly related to the processes of vocational evaluation or adjustment services and likely to have been written by a vocational evaluator, an adjustment specialist, or a teacher in one of these areas. Other literature about topics important and useful to the process is also included. Examples are literature related to the dictionary of occupational titles or behavior modification. The entry for each document provides this information. Author, developer, institution, editor, title, source, publication date, issue, and pagination or place and date of publication. Author and subject indexes are provided.
