deluxe edition of the classic works includes a 21st century study guide structured with introspective questions that will allow you to let the wisdom the author imparts infiltrate both your conscious and unconscious mind it's time to shift into high gear and forward motion as you commit to your greatest and highest purpose the magic of believing is a self-help book written by Claude Bristol that explores the power of belief and its impact on personal success and fulfillment it argues that by harnessing the power of belief individuals can overcome obstacles achieve their goals and unlock their full potential it emphasises the importance of having a clear vision and unwavering faith in one s abilities and encourages readers to tap into the subconscious mind and tap into the limitless possibilities that lie within it also provides practical advice and examples to guide readers on a journey of self discovery and empower them to take charge of their lives the magic of believing has had a lasting impact on the self help genre inspiring readers to embrace the power of their beliefs and strive for personal growth and achievement you will never doubt yourself again pen award winning historian and popular new thought voice Mitch Horowitz teaches how to harness and maximize the tools of the magic of believing one of the most effective works of mind power ever written in Mitch's five lessons you will experience Claude M Bristol's the magic of believing in a whole new way and you will also experience as though for the first time and for all time the extraordinary powers within you join Mitch to discover how to effectively program your mind the links between performance and self image why writing down symbols aims and wishes brings you special power how to develop charisma the correspondences between current ESP research and Bristol's ideas much of today's writing about spirituality is loaded with nonsense often it consists of little more than wild speculation shoddy reasoning and the repetition of a few stale truisms a very small number of writers and editors have climbed above this morass to combine spiritual depth with intellectual acumen and literary polish Mitch Horowitz is one of them. Richard Smoley, New Dawn Magazine did you know the solutions to any perceived problems have been hidden in plain sight for you. You can have limitless freedom, prosperity, happiness and good health just for asking. The trick is to know how to ask. Claude Bristol ran upon these answers as a youth but couldn’t put them to use until he survived World War I and the dire necessity of those conditions forced him to decide to apply what he already knew in earnest. He had his own success for a time, then the Great Depression hit. He saw that the business he served as vice president was on the verge of going under not because of the external events of the time but because of the fears and anxieties of the staff themselves. The magic of believing resulted and became an instant bestseller. What he talks about in his books could be found by anyone but you can get a head start by buying and reading it yourself. Get your copy today! One of the greatest inspirational and motivational books ever written. Norman Vincent Peale in this bestselling self-help book, a successful businessman reveals the secrets behind harnessing the unlimited energies of the subconscious. Millions of readers have benefited from these visualization techniques which show you how to turn your thoughts and dreams into actions that can lead to enhanced income, happiness, relationships, increased effectiveness, heightened influence and improved peace of mind. World War I veteran Claude M. Bristol, 1891-1951, wrote The Magic of Believing to help former soldiers adjust to civilian life. A pioneer of the new thought movement and a popular motivational speaker, Bristol addressed those in all walks of life from politicians and leaders to performers and salespeople. His timeless message of the powers of focused thinking and self-affirmation remains a vital source of inspiration and a practical path to achievement. What do you want the most from this life? Is it happiness, wealth, power, health, or success? Whatever it is, know this: all things are possible to him who believes. If you believe, you will receive whatever you set your mind to.
