The tenth novel in Tony Hillerman's acclaimed Leaphorn and Chee series, Bolt the Door, Disconnect the Phone, and Declare Yourself Off Limits: Coyote Waits is a real confounder not at all what you expected.

Denver Post The car fire didn't kill Navajo tribal policeman Delbert Nez; a bullet did. And the old man in possession of the murder weapon is a whiskey-soaked shaman named Ashie Pinto. Officer Jim Chee is devastated by the slaying of his good friend Del and confounded by the prime suspect's refusal to utter a single word of confession or denial. Lieutenant Joe Leaphorn believes there is much more to this outrage than what appears on the surface as he and Jim Chee set out to unravel a complex weave of greed and death that involves a historical find and a lost fortune but the hungry and mythical trickster Coyote is waiting as always in the shadows to add a strange and deadly new twist.

tony hillerman's bestselling navajo mysteries have thrilled millions of readers with their taut intricate plotting sensitive subtle characterizations and lyrical evocations of landscapes and cultures now he departs his trademark terrain and applies his talents to a story he has wanted to tell for decades about an ordinary man thrust into total chaos until the telephone call came for him on april 12 1975 the world of moon mathias had settled into a predictable routine he knew who he was he was the disappointing son of victoria mathias the brother of the brilliant recently dead ricky mathias and a man who could be counted on to solve small problems but the telephone caller was an airport security officer and the news he delivered handed moon a problem as large as southeast asia his mother who should be in her florida apartment is fighting for her life in a los angeles hospital stricken while en route to the philippines to bring home a grandchild they hadn't known existed the papers in her purse send moon into a world totally strange to him they lure him down the back streets of manila to a rural cockfight into the odd filipino prison on palawan island and finally across the south china sea to where pol pot's khmer rouge is turning cambodia into killing fields and communist rockets are beginning to fall on the outskirts of saigon finding moon is many things a latter day adventure epic a deftly orchestrated romance an arresting portrait of an exotic realm engulfed in turmoil and a neatly turned tale of suspense most of all it is a singular story of how a plain uncertain man finds his best self

The solution to a horrific crime is buried somewhere in a dead man’s secrets and in the shocking events of a hundred years past to ignore the warnings of a venerable seer however might be reckless foolishness when Leaphorn’s investigation leads him farther away from the comprehensible and closer to the most brutally violent confrontation of his career performed by George Guidall.
