A goodreads most anticipated romance a heartwarming novel about hope after loss as a young widow receives mysterious messages of love from the music buy author Jodi Picoult of eight perfect hours. Sparkly and charming, Natalie Fincher has it all; a handsome new husband, a fixer upper cottage of her dreams, and the opportunity to tour with the musical she’s spent years writing but when her husband suddenly dies, all her hopes and dreams instantly disappear. Two and a half years later, Natalie is still lost; she works sleeps well as much as the sexually frustrated village foxes will allow, and sees friends just often enough to allay their worries. But her life is empty, and she can only bring herself to play music at a London train station’s public piano where she can be anonymous. She’s lost motivation in love, in happiness, in everything. But when someone begins to mysteriously leave the sheet music for her husband’s favorite songs at the station, she wonders if it’s possible to feel a sense of hope and excitement for the first time as she investigates just who could be doing this. Natalie finds herself on an unexpected journey toward newfound love for herself, for life, and maybe for a special...

The heart in the Islamic understanding is the expression of a human being's spiritual existence. It is a divine gift and divine subtle faculty bestowed upon humanity. It is a polished mirror reflecting god like a general. The heart commands all other bodily organs and faculties which are its troops. Everything that comes from a human being, whether good or bad, is a product of the heart. Mehmet Y. Seker, a scholar of sufism and tasawwuf, studies the concept of the heart in the Islamic tradition, looking at how it is approached by three prominent scholars and thinkers of Islam: Ghazali, Said Nursi, and Fethullah Gulen. This book comparatively analyzes classical and modern age interpretations and evaluations on the concept and adds to the rich literature of spirituality in the Islamic tradition.

Signal transduction pathways are at the core of most biological processes and are critical regulators of heart physiology and pathophysiology. The heart is both a transmitter and dynamic receptor of a variety of intracellular and extracellular stimuli, playing a critical role in an integrator of diverse signaling mechanisms. Alterations in signaling pathways are contributing factors in the development and progression of a broad spectrum of diseases ranging from dysrhythmias and atherosclerosis to hypertension and the metabolic syndrome. Targeting specific components of these signaling pathways has been shown to be effective in preclinical studies with significant therapeutic impact. This book brings together current knowledge in cardiovascular cell signal transduction mechanisms, advances in novel therapeutic approaches to improve cardiac function, and discussion of future directions presented from a post-genomic perspective. This exciting book introduces important new ideas in cardiovascular systems biology and is an invaluable reference for cardiology researchers and practitioners.

Two wrongs may not make it right, but it sure feels good. Wai and Lorren have been together for six years, and their relationship has never been ideal. Lorren cheats on Wai, who loves him so she stays, and to cope with his infidelity, she has an affair of her own. When Lorren finds out about Wai's extracurricular activities, will he be able to handle it or will his own secrets trump any feeling he may have towards the matter? Wood and Xavia have been in love with each other since they first met, but there's only one thing standing in the way of their happily ever after: Wood's babymama, Shareem. After successfully forcing her way into Wood's life and pushing Xavia out, Shareem thought she'd won that was until Wood needed her to be what she said she would be—his rider. When Shareem leaves Wood hanging, he turns to the one person he knows has his back. The situation opens the door for them to rekindle what was meant to be, but how far will Shareem go to make sure that doesn't happen?
